

BELL 212 with T53 CONVERSION FIELD MAINTENANCE COURSE

HTIGLOBAL WAS CONTRACTED FOR A SECOND TIME TO TRAIN A&P HELICOPTERS TECHNICIANS. A&P HELICOPTERS IS A LONG-TIME OPERATOR OF BELL HELICOPTERS INCLUDING THE BELL MEDIUM AND LIGHT HELICOPTERS.

IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN THEIR FLEET IN TOP MAINTENANCE CONDITIONS AND CONTINUE THEIR HIGH LEVEL OF SAFETY, A&P HELICOPTERS CONTRACTED HTIGLOBAL TO DO INHOUSE FIELD MAINTENANCE TECHNICAL TRAINING.

WE THANK A&P HELICOPTERS FOR THIS OPPORTUNITY TO TRAIN THEIR TECHNICAL STAFF.

Special Thanks to: Jeremy Van Vliet (VP of Operations), Gregory Fox (DOM), James Tiemann (Assistant DOM) and Chris Cafaro (Q.A. Manager) for their support before and during the course.

From left to Right: Greg Fox (DOM). Pablo Linares (Instructor-HTIGlobal), Juan Villanueva (Tech.), Gonzalo Curiel (Tech), James Tiemann (Asst. DOM), Jesus Torres (Tech.), Denton Deal (Apprentice), Brian Miles (Tech.), Jason Gustafson (Tech.), Liam Zaniroli (Tech.), Nathan Reynolds (Tech.), William Guse (Tech.), Jesse Kann (Tech.), and Chris Cafaro (Q.A.)

A&P Helicopters, based in Richvale, California is an FAA Part 133 & 135 Helicopter Operator.

With a fleet of light and medium aircraft used for a multitude of operations.

A&P Specializes in long-line lift operations for both cargo and Human External Cargo providing the appropriate aircraft and crews to suit customer needs safely and efficiently.

Services include Power Line Construction, External Cargo, Construction Lifting, Human External Cargo (HEC), Power Line & Pipeline Patrols, Law Enforcement Support, Motion Pictures, Photography, Insurance Retrieval and much more.

A&P Helicopter's Fleet consists of MD500'S, Bell 407'S, Eagle 407HPs, Bell UH-1 Huey, Bell 212 (Eagle Single) w/ T53 Engine, and Bell Jet Ranger.

Visit WWW.APHELICOPTERS.COM for more information!